Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, you have knit your people together in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Mission Statement of Holly Grove Lutheran Church

Text "give" to 336-331-5531

If you faithfully give regularly with checks or cash, God bless you, and please keep doing what you're doing. But if having to track down a checkbook means you sometimes give less often than you'd like, or if you never have any cash, online giving might be for you! Text the number above or visit our website, hollygrovelutheranchurch.org to give a one-time gift or set up a recurring donation.

Litany for All Saints Sunday

Leader: We give you thanks O God, for all the Saints.

Congregation: We thank you for their character, strength, faithfulness & obedience.

L: We thank you for the Saints who spoke your Word to us.

C: We thank you for those who told the stories of faith.

L: We thank you for the Saints who told us the Good News of Jesus Christ.

C: We thank you for those who told of Jesus' healing & feeding, calling & sending, dying, rising and living again.

L: We thank you for the Saints who live their faith every day.

C: We thank you for those who visited, worked, volunteered, called, cooked, sang, cared, taught, served, cleaned, mowed, fixed, shared, proclaimed and forgave.

L: We thank you for all the Saints.

C: We thank you for all the Saints who sacrificed for the freedoms we enjoy, who fought and bled, were wounded and have died on desert roads, beaches, jungles, and battlefields.

L: We thank you for all the Saints.

C: We thank you that all these Saints now live where pain is not felt and death never comes, tears do not fall and sadness is banished.

L: We look forward to that great "rising up morning" when we will all live as Saints in the New Jerusalem, where the light never fades.

All: Until that glorious day we will rejoice knowing we are surrounded by all the Saints who have gone on before us.
